PUTS BLAME ON LOCAL ASSESSOR

v. Goodrich Says Horizontal Increases Were Made Necessary by Low Assessments

DOES NOT EFFECT TAXES

Example is Cited to Show That Additions to Valuations Did Not Make Taxes More

Replying to Charles H. Alger who complained that the horizontal increase put on tax valuations in Rush county by the state tax board was unjust, Governor Goodrich puts the blame wholly on the local assessor for any inequalities which may exist in a letter just received by Alger.

The governor points out, as has been maintained by defenders of the law, that no matter how the variations in the assessment of personal property or real estate may be, the horizontal increase makes no difference in the amount of taxes paid because the change in valuations causes a correspondingly lower tax rate.

An automobile belonging to George Looney, Jr., 827 North Main street, which is assessed at more than its first cost due to the increase put on by the state board, is frequently been used as an example to prove the contention that horizontal increases are unjust.

This claim can be disproved, however, by the fact that Mr. Looney will pay this year 57 cents less on his automobile than he would have paid if the horizontal increase had not been attached by the state board.

If there had been no horizontal increase of 25% on realty and 40% on personal property in Rushville city, to have raised the amount of taxes that will be raised $132,765 th the rate as finally fixed, it could have required a rate of 4.06 on each $100 worth of property.

In that event Mr. Looney would have paid $32 tax on his automobile which was assessed at $1,330. The percent increase made the valuation on his automobile $1,860 and at the present rate of $1.09 he will pay $2.03 taxes on it, or 57 cents less than he would have paid had there been no horizontal increase.

Mr. Looney also has referred to the case of his old driving horse, which was assessed at $100 in the township. He would have paid $1.31 taxes on the horse, with the rate at $1.31, had there been no horizontal increase, but with the increase of 30 percent on personal property in that township, he pays a valuation of $130 at a rate of $1.07, which makes the taxes on the horse $1.38, or eight cents more than if the horizontal increase had been put on.

Therefore, the only effect the horizontal increase had on Mr.
Looney's taxes on these two items of personal property, was to make the reduction of 49 cents.

The governor's letter which came in response to one written by Mr.
Alger and published in the Daily Republican Thursday, is as follows: I have your letter of February 4 recognizing the force of what you are to say. The fault lies almost holly with the local assessor. If he does his whole duty and assesses property of every kind, personal and corporate at its true value, as the law intends, there will be no horizontal increase, but if they fail to do that and grossly undervalue the personal property as a whole, then horizontal increases are bound to follow. It makes no difference how wide the variations may be in the assessment of personal property, the horizontal increase does not affect in the slightest degree the amount of taxes you pay in the township. It only affects the amount of taxes you pay to support the county government and the state and that is but a very small percentage of the entire amount.

I hope that in assessing personal property and corporate property this year that every local assessor will do his whole duty and get a full list of property assessed at its true value and there will be no necessity for horizontal increases.

CLINE CASE IS CONTINUED

Case Set for Monday Has Been Called Off Until Later.

A continuance has been granted in the case of the State against Ora Cline, charged with encouraging delinquency on Gladys Smith. The defense announced today that they were ready for trial, but because of the illness of Prosecutor Stevens, the state was granted a continuance and the case will come up for trial at a later date. The jury, which had been summoned for Monday, was notified today that they would not be used, and were not to report until ordered again.

SNOW FLURRIES ARE PREDICTED TONIGHT

On Heels of Light Fall Last Night, Which Melted Gradually Today, More is Coming

JANUARY RECORD REPORTED

More snow flurries are predicted by the weather man for tonight, on the heels of a light snow last night, which today was melting gradually.
Little change in temperature is expected.

January was an unusual month, according to a weather record compiled by Elwood Kirkwood, county weather observer. While there was snow on the ground every day of the month, the precipitation was 1.12 inches below the six-year average. This is due to the fact that the month was uniformly cold and the snow did not melt. The temperature was 4.4 degrees below the average for the same month for six years.
The mean temperature was 22.2 degrees as compared with 24.2 in 1915, 24.3 in 1916, 28.2 in 1917, 13.3 in 1918 and 32.5 in 1919.

The average precipitation for last month was 2.24 inches as compared with 8.08 in 1916, 4.26 in 1917, 2.97 in 1918 and 1.10 in 1919.

PASSENGERS TAKEN OFF STRANDED LINER

Small Boats Rescue 104 Persons on Princess Anne Which Struck Reef Off Rockaway Point.

FIRST EFFORTS ARE FAILURE

(By United Press.)

New York, Feb. 7.—Passengers of the stranded Old Dominion liner Princess Anne were being transferred in small boats to the post guard Manhattan, this afternoon.

The transfer was being made by two boats, a police launch and a coast guard power boat.

The police craft was the first to reach the stranded liner and was greeted with cheers by the huddled passengers and crew who had been without heat or warm food since the boiler room was flooded yesterday.

There was 104 persons on the liner when she struck a reef off Rockaway point yesterday morning.
Tentative efforts were made to launch life boats from the shore yesterday, but no headway could be made against the seas. Attempts were renewed again today and the police boat, wrestling with the huge waves, finally succeeded in drawing along side the liner to which a line was made fast.

Six women and three men were first transferred to the police boat by rope slings. They were suffering from cold and exposure and were given immediate medical attention by a police sergeant.

83 LOSSES WERE ADJUSTED IN 1919

Report of Secretary of Rush County Mutual Live Stock Insurance
Co. Read Today

ANNUAL MEETING WAS HELD

Same Policies to be Continued Unless Secretary is Notified to Contrary—Officers Elected

The Rush County Mutual Live Stock Insurance Company met in their annual session today in the court room and the officers for the coming year were elected this afternoon before the meeting adjourned.

This morning the various reports were read and approved. The attendance today was not very large and the afternoon session was attended by only about 50 members.

The report showed that there were 335 members carrying insurance, and that there were 83 losses adjusted last year. The total amount paid for losses was $6,- 009.36. It was decided this afternoon that all members would be continued with their same policies for this year, unless the secretary was notified to the contrary.

The pay of the insurance adjusters was increased this afternoon from $2.50 a trip to $3.00. In the year $6,830.36 was collected and turned over to the treasurer.

Albert Leisure, president of the organization, presided at the meeting, and even though the attendance was small, a great deal of enthusiasm was displayed. Several of the members gave short talks on the benefits derived from such an organization.

The election of officers took place this afternoon, and all of the old officers were re-elected, except the vice-president, Samuel Newhouse; being elected to take the place of Frank Cross.

The officers were not contested except the adjuster for the north district, Bert Dalrymple and Clyde Henley both being mentioned, which resulted in the re-election of Mr.
Henley.

Following are the officers elected this afternoon: President Albert Leisure; vice-president, Samuel Newhouse; secretary, J. A. Stevens; treasurer John Hill; adjuster for northern district, Clyde Henley; middle district, Will Jay and southern district, W. A. Muil.

3, 1917, Sues For Divorce

ASKS CUSTODY OF THE CHILD

A divorce complaint filed this afternoon by Lucile Beckner against Thomas A. Beckner, states that they lived together as husband and wife only 24 hours, and then the husband abandoned her. Mrs. Beckner, leaving under 21 years of age, brings the suit by her next friend, Mrs.
Clara Floyd.

The complaint states that they were married July 2, 1917 and sepa-

the husband left, and has since failed to provide. Mrs. Beckner gives her address as 718 East Eighth Besides asking for a divorce she also demands $100 as alimony, and asks the custody of their two-year-old child, which was born to them.

AVERAGE OF FIVE NEW CASES A DAY

More Influenza Patients Are Reported to City Health Board, But Situation is Not Serious

OTHER CONTAGIOUS DISEASES

Red Cross Committee Reports it is Ready to Help When Needed—of Great Benefit in 1918

Fifteen cases of influenza have been reported in this city for the three day period ending today, and the number of cases reported while seemingly large in number, is not to be considered alarming and the situation here is not regarded as serious.

Of the cases reported, some of them were probably delayed as physicians wish to wait a few days before making a definite decision as to whether or not the patient has influenza or a severe cold.

Eight of these 15 cases were received in the morning mail, and were from the same physician, bearing dates of February 3 to the 6.
In the three day period covered besides the 15 cases of influenza, there was also 8 cases of measles, two of scarlet fever and the small-pox case which was discovered early this week.

The cases reported up to this morning are as follows:

Freda Flint, 625 N. Jackson; Albert Stevens, 408 N. Morgan; Bert Trabue, 715 N. Harrison; Mrs. Gordon Bennett, 638 W. Seventh; Glenn Moore, E. Sixth; Bert Glover, 1003 N. Sexton; Mrs. Fred Conde, 527 W.
Fifth; James Carr, 501 N. Perkins; Ella Worsham, N. Morgan; Mrs.
Veri Rebout, N. Perkins; Stewart Belout, N. Morgan; Mrs. C. L. Be-bout, N. Morgan; Mrs. H. V. Logan, N. Perkins and Howard Rebout over Dan Long's garage.

All emergency cases of influenza which cannot receive the proper attention by the local physicians or the visiting nurse are requested to be reported to the Red Cross emergency committee, which is composed of Mrs. A. L. Stewart, Mrs.
Harrie Jones, Mrs. Lewis Sexton and Mrs. George Aultman, and these ladies will see that the influenza patients are taken care of in the proper manner.

This committee had charge of the influenza situation in this city last year and did very serviceable work in aiding to combat the disease, and is ready again this year to render their services wherever they are needed.

uled to begin at the First Presby-received late yesterday that Mr.

George would be unable to come and it was decided not to start the revival until a week from Sunday.

It is very much regretted," said the Rev. G. F. Sheldon, pastor of the church, today, "that this change is necessary, but as it is unavoidable, it is hoped the members and friends will lend their assistance and help make tomorrow a most enjoyable day."

CALLS ALLIED DEMAND AN ACT OF REVENGE

Minister Noske Compares Allies With Shylock Due to Efforts to Get Trial of War Guilty

WONDERS ABOUT THE FUTURE

(By United Press.)

London, Feb. 7.—The allied demand for the surrender of the German alleged war guilty "is an act of revenge, worse than Shylock's," Minister of Defense Noske was quoted as saying in an interview cabled to the Daily Mail.

Surrender of accused Germans is a practical impossibility, the correspondent quoted Noske as asserting.
Even if the accused men were arrested, Noske continued, crowds of Germans would not allow the train to cross the frontier.

"I would not order them shot by our troops. The present German government may possibly be forced to resign," Noske declared, but he added, "What would replace it?" The allied reply to the Dutch note refusing the extradition of the former kaiser will be distinct reapplication of the original allied demand that he be delivered to them for trial, it was stated on good authority here today.

ROBBERY LINKED WITH DEMAREES

Confession of Harvey Yazell, Sentenced to Reformatory, Says Jess Picked Houses to Rob

WIFE RECEIVED ONE THIRD

List of "Prospects" For Gang Found on Dead Man—Jess Demaree is in Penal Farm

The Greensburg robbery of last Tuesday night which resulted fatally for one member of the gang and in the arrest of Harvey Yazell, 18-year-old boy, has been finally linked with the Demaree gang in a confession given out yesterday by the prisoner in Greensburg after he was sentenced to the Jeffersonville reformatory for a term of from one to fourteen years.

The young man stated that Jess Demaree, now serving a sentence at the penal farm, and a brother of Boaz Demaree, held in jail here, was in the gang and cited the places for the two men to rob.

Clothing of the dead man also contained facts relative to places listed as prospects for the robbers.
The Greensburg News prints the following concerning the confession of the 18-year-old robber:

Pleading guilty to a charge of grand larceny in connection with the jewel theft at the Harry Hamilton home Tuesday night, Harvey Yazell, age 18, of Hamilton, Ohio, Friday in circuit court, confessed that he had been "tipped off" as to local places by Jess Demaree, of this city, who is now serving a sentence at the state penal farm for larceny.

Yazell asserted that the agreement with Demaree was that they were to give his wife, in the third of the "swag" secured in local robberies.

Following Yazell's plea of guilty, Judge Craig fined him $10 and costs and sentenced him to serve a term of one to fourteen years in the state reformatory at Jeffersonville. The burglary charge was dismissed.

Yazell also asserted that they had been "tipped off" to a large quantity of whiskey hidden at various places here and that he and his companion had planned to "sell it" at Richmond for $165 a case. This story is disputed by local police and Big Four detectives.

Questions as to a third party in the robbery, Yazell denied that he was to meet anyone here. He had visited a local pool room before the robbery, it was said but he claimed that he was not looking for anyone in particular.

Directions as to how to reach the local places were first written on the paper taken from a tobacco box and later recopied. Yazell and Townsend came to this city a few days after they were released and looked over the ground.

Following the Hamilton robbery Yazell and Townsend appeared at the Best restaurant and Yazell flushed a roll of bills, inquiring where he could buy a case of whiskey. When he was captured the following morning the money was missing. He claimed that he lost it when he made his escape after the fight with Detective Laville.

One diamond ring stolen from the Hamilton home is still missing and search for it is being continued. The other jewelry was found along the railroad tracks and restored to the owners.

Yazell has been in trouble several times before the local theft and when he was ten years old served a term in the boys' reformatory at Lancaster, Ohio, it was said.

Jess Demaree, who is implicated in the theft by the confession of Yazell, was sent to the penal farm on a charge of larceny, following the theft of coal from the Big Four railroad company. He was arrested by Detective Neal and when searched a revolver was found.

County Coroner C. B. Grover held an inquest in the case of Frank Townsend, shot and killed by Big Four Detective Laville and his finding exonerates the officer from all blame for the shooting. Principal witnesses were Walker Beeson, Big Four ticket agent, only eye-witness and Harvey Yazell, 18, of Hamilton.

NOBLE INSTITUTE HELD YESTERDAY

All Day Session is Held in School Building at New Salem and Big Attendance Was on Hand

G. W. ROSENCRANS SPEAKS

Assistant County Agent Leader Talks to Farmers About Their Problems—Corn Show Went Big

The Noble Township Farmers' Association held an Institute yesterday in the school building at New Salem.

G. W. Rosencrans, Assistant County Agent Leader, gave an address. He explained the possibilities of the farmers' organizations and emphasized the necessity of township organizations working on township problems. He approved of the idea of meeting together to discuss the local problems and their solution. When the problems have been sought out the County Agent should be put to work on the job of helping solve them, he said.

Short talks were given by members. An excellent corn show was one of the features of the day. Great interest was shown in the study of corn, by those who had made exhibits. E. G. Jones won first prize on yellow corn and Paul Hungerford won second on yellow corn.

Five essays were written on farm topics by the agricultural classes. All were creditable productions showing excellent work on the part of the boys.

The girls of the domestic science class made a fine exhibit for which several prizes were given.

A dinner was served by the ladies that would have satisfied the tastes of a queen. The ladies organized a separate division to cooperate with the men in putting on an Institute with state aid and an application will be made to Prof. Latta within the next few days for a date on the institute scheduled next year.

Miss Harriet Smith, Y. W. C. A. Student Secretary in China, Relates Amazing Story of How 20,000 Students Organized Themselves.

By BERNICE GRISWOLD.
Miss Harriet Smith, for ten years a student secretary of the Young Women's Christian Association in Shanghai, China, relates the amazing story of how 20,000 Chinese students organized themselves to oust the militarists from Government offices in Peking and how they succeeded in becoming the leaders of China.

Fearing that China was not to be protected from the aggression of other nations by the Peace Treaty, as she had expected to be, some 20,000 students, all of them between the ages of twelve and twenty-one years and including 8,000 girls organized themselves into the Chinese Students' Patriotic Society immediately after the publication of the first draft of the Peace Treaty to fight for Chinese rights.

Their first move was to strike from school or, rather, from lectures, as they remained in their respective schools and spent so many hours daily in private study. They then organized into bands for getting out propaganda literature and for public speaking in the country and small towns and in the tea shops in poorer districts of the cities in order that they might reach the vast numbers of people who could not read.

Immediately upon organizing, the students published their demands, four in number: (1) that the militarists, who as a party were pro-Japanese and practically controlled the Government at Peking, be put out of office; (2) that Shantung be returned to China; (3) that the twenty-one demands made by Japan in 1915 be cancelled; (4) that there be freedom of speech and of the press. They also insisted that the Chinese constitution be finished.

An immense amount of literature was put out, much of it in the new phonetic script which is being launched in China, so that the uneducated classes might learn what was happening. Students lectured everywhere on the demands, stirring the people to patriotism. When many of them were arrested while parading in the streets of Peking they formed an Association of Imprisoned Students within the prison and refused to be released, picketing the stockade themselves when Government guards were taken away, until the Government submitted a proper apology for having imprisoned them in the beginning.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS. Repatriating Prisoners.

When hostilities ceased there were in the hands of their Teuton captors millions of prisoners of war of all Allied countries, the terrible plight of whom is well known to all the world. Red Cross workers, carrying relief supplies of clothing, medicines and supplementary foodstuffs, penetrated the Central Powers as soon after the armistice as the military authorities would permit, and the work of getting the prisoners started back to their own countries was soon begun. In this photograph a group of these men are seen packed up and restored to something like normal health, awaiting the train that will carry them out of bondage.

FAIRVIEW QUINTET DEFEATS MORRISTOWN

Wins Fastest Game Ever Staged on Home Floor by Score of 36 to 30 Friday Night

WILL PLAY HERE WEDNESDAY

The fastest game ever staged at Fairview was pulled off last night at their gymnasium when the high school five met the Morristown team defeating them 36 to 30. The game was fast and clean throughout. The first half ended 15 to 14 with Fairview having the larger slice of the score.

After the second half started Fairview held the top place and was never passed. The fast pass work of the Fairview squad was the outstanding feature of the game, as they used fast, short passes and worked the ball to their end of the floor. Zike played the star game for Morristown, while Patton and Hill starred for the Fairview team.

Fairview has developed a fast team this year and will no doubt give someone a fast game here in March. A game will probably be staged in Rushville between Fairview and Morristown next Wednesday night, as a curtain raiser for the Milroy-Rushville contest.

Federal Aid to Soldiers
In almost every community in the United States there is a discharged soldier, sailor, marine, or war nurse, suffering from some injury, or ailment which dates back to service with the fighting forces.

Often this injury or ailment has made it hard or impossible for them to fit in where they did formerly. They are handicapped and need help; not charity, but mental and physical reconstruction. In many cases such people unfortunately keep their troubles to themselves. They are reluctant to seek aid or advice, for fear their friends might consider them weak. Possibly you know such a person.

If you do, encourage him to take his troubles to the Government. The War Risk Insurance Bureau and the United States Public Health Service are especially anxious to get in touch with such individuals. The Public Health Service has set up a chain of reconstruction bases throughout the country for beneficiaries of the War Risk Bureau. These are not Army hospitals, nor is there Army discipline in connection with them, but rather a system of hospitals similar to the general hospital in large cities except that the treatment is free and goes much further than in the ordinary hospital.

Recreation vocational training and wholesome entertainment are combined with treatment. The Poindexter-Wood Debate Gen. Wood has accepted the challenge of Senator Poindexter for a joint debate on issues of the day at Pierre, South Dakota, on March 20th. This will probably be the first opportunity that the people of the country will have to see two Presidential candidates face to face, and to compare their views on public questions. It marks a return to the methods of Lincoln and Douglas and an abandonment of the secret politics that have distinguished the methods of those in power for the past eight years. Poindexter and Wood are not political opponents in the sense that Lincoln and Douglas were but they are opposing candidates for their party's nomination, and the people and the convention delegates must choose between them before the votes are cast at the convention in June. That they are to have the opportunity in South Dakota to judge at first hand of their relative platforms and abilities is one of the healthful signs of the times.

In view of the fact that England for the present year has made an appropriation of $330,000,000 for aeronautical development, Senator Medill McCormick is of the opinion that the United States ought not to be called upon to waive the interest on its loans to Great Britain, which is about equivalent to the amount of the appropriation.

TO "CONQUER AND DESTROY STATE," U. S. COMMUNISTS CALL FOR LABOR REVOLT

Revolutionary Pamphlet, Found in U. S. Department of Justice Investigations, Gives Message of Communists in Chicago to Russian Headquarters.

Extracts from "Manifesto and Program—Constitution—Report to the Communist International" by the Communist Party of America, Chicago, Ill.

Communism does not propose to 'capture' the bourgeois parliamentary state, but to conquer and destroy it. As long as the bourgeois state prevails, the capitalist class can baffle the will of the proletariat.

In those countries in which historical development has furnished the opportunity, the working class has utilized the regime of political democracy for its organization against Capitalism.

The older unionism was based on the craft divisions of small industry. The unions consisted primarily of skilled workers whose skill is itself a form of property. The unions were not organs of the militant class struggle. Today the dominant unionism is actually a bulwark of Capitalism, merging in Imperialism and accepting State Capitalism.

The proletarian revolution comes at the moment of crisis in Capitalism, of a collapse of the old order. Under the impulse of the crisis, the proletariat acts for the conquest of power, by means of mass action. Mass action concentrates and mobilizes the forces of the proletariat, organized and unorganized; it acts equally against the bourgeois state and the conservative organizations of the working class. Strikes of protest develop into general political strikes and then into revolutionary mass action for the conquest of the power of the state. Mass action becomes political in purpose while extra-parliamentary in form; it is equally a process of revolution and the revolution itself in operation.

The Communist Party is the conscious expression of the class struggle of the workers against capitalism. Its aim is to direct this struggle to the conquest of political power, the overthrow of capitalism and the destruction of the bourgeois state.

The Communist Party prepares itself for the revolution in the measure that it develops a program of immediate action, expressing the mass struggles of the proletariat. These struggles must be inspired with revolutionary spirit and purposes.

The Communist Party is fundamentally a party of action. It brings to the workers a consciousness of their oppression, of the impossibility of improving their conditions under capitalism. The Communist Party directs the workers' struggle against capitalism, developing fuller forms and purposes in this struggle, culminating in the mass action of the revolution.

The Communist Party shall make the great industrial struggles of the working class its major campaigns. In order to develop an understanding of the strike in relation to the overthrow of capitalism.

(a) The Communist Party shall participate in mass strikes, not only to achieve the immediate purposes of the strike, but to develop the revolutionary implications of the mass strike.

(b) Mass strikes are vital factors in the process out of which develops the workers' understanding and action for the conquest of power.

(c) In mass strikes under conditions of concentrated capitalism there is latent the tendency toward the general mass strike, which takes on a political character and manifests the impulse toward proletarian dictatorship.

In these general mass strikes the Communist Party shall emphasize the necessity of maintaining industry and the taking over of social functions usually discharged by the capitalists and the institutions of capitalism. The strike must cease being isolated and passive; it must become positive, general and aggressive, preparing the workers for the complete assumption of industrial and social control.

(a) Every local and district organization of the Party shall establish contact with industrial units in its territory, the shops, mills and mines—and direct its agitation accordingly.

(b) Shop Committees shall be organized wherever possible for the purpose of Communist agitation in a particular shop or industry by the workers employed there. These committees shall be united with each other and with the Communist Party, so that the party shall have actual contact with the workers and mobilize them for action against capitalism.

The Communist Party must engage actively in the struggle to revolutionize the trade unions. As against the unionism of the American Federation of Labor, the Communist Party propagandizes industrial unionism and industrial union organization, emphasizing their revolutionary implications. Industrial Unionism is not simply a means for the everyday struggle against capitalism; its ultimate purpose is revolutionary, implying the necessity of ending the capitalist parliamentary state. Industrial Unionism is a factor in the final mass action for the conquest of power, as it will constitute the basis for the industrial administration of the Communist Commonwealth.

(a) The Communist Party recognizes that the A. F. of L. is reactionary and a bulwark of capitalism.

(b) Councils of workers shall be organized in the shops as circumstances allow, for the purpose of carrying on the industrial union struggle in the old unions, uniting and mobilizing the militant elements; these councils to be unified in a Central Council wherever possible.

(c) It shall be a major task of the Communist Party to agitate for the construction of a general industrial union organization, embracing the I. W. W., W. I. L. U., independent and secession unions, militant unions of the A. F. of L., and the unorganized workers, on the basis of the revolutionary class struggle.

The Communist Party shall encourage movements of the workers in the shops seeking to realize workers' control of industry, while indicating their limitations under capitalism; concretely, any movement analogous to the Shop Stewards of England. These movements (equally directed against the union bureaucracy) should be related to the Communist Party.

The unorganized unskilled workers (including the agricultural proletariat) constitute the bulk of the working class. The Communist Party shall directly and systematically agitate among these workers, awakening them to industrial union organization and action.

Our Daily Laugh

New and Bright Yarns That Will Tickle You and Will be Relished by Your Friends When You Repeat Them.

An inebriated gentleman became quite noisy. One of the club members took him to the Georgian Room and placed him on a couch and closed the door, meanwhile leaving the lights burning. The room was paneled throughout. Furthermore it was an exact square and the panels were installed without a break. The room had a noticeable sameness on all four sides. The doors contained white knobs, and the entire room scheme was white. Two hours later a club attendant heard a peculiar sound.

"Stop thief! Burglars! Woof! Woof!"

He hustled into the Georgian Room. In the middle of it and on all fours, and barking, was the inebriated man whose dazzled eyes had found no point of exit.

"Get the police! Somebody stole the door. Woof!"

URGES PEOPLE TO FIGHT CATARRH WITH SIMPLE HOME MADE REMEDY

Can Make Pint at Home and Costs Little, Says L. Druggist of Covington, Ky., Who Has Made Special Study of Catarrh.

Says: Inflamed Nostrils Invite Influenza

People who say that catarrh is a disease not to be taken seriously are harshly rebuked by a Kentucky druggist who has for years been much interested in the growth of this loathsome, yet altogether too common disease.

He claims that the sore, tender, inflamed membrane of the nostrils and throat is a prolific breeding ground for germs—not only the germs of influenza, but many other kinds as well.

If people would only stop experimenting for two weeks and try a simple remedy made of Mentholized Arcline mixed with enough boiled water to make a full pint, half of the catarrh in this country would be abolished.

It's really no joke for people who don't know about this recipe to be taken constantly and snuffing, blowing and, when all these symptoms as well as the charge can be made to disappear in a few days.

Ask for three-quarters ounce of Mentholized Arcline that's all you need and have mixed it with enough water to make a pint, spray some up the nostril and the tender nostrils will lose their soreness, heal up clean and healthy.

Important Reminder: soon as anyone in the family has a cold in the head, check it with this same medicine.

When you can look out over the stern of a big dreadnaught and see a line of regular he-ships following in battle formation, you just can't help swelling up and letting out a couple of man-sized roars. A fair sea, a good breeze, and a line of battleships making fifteen to twenty knots, present the most inspiring sight any man can ask on this earth. Living with such experiences turns boys into men, gives them a grip on life, makes real stuff of them. They work hard, they play hard, and we know that, if necessary, they can fight hard. COLLEGES TO TAKE UP BOXING SPORT

Indiana Schools May Turn Out a New Kind of Athletic Pastime From Present Appearances

WOULDN'T INTEREST GIRLS

Athletics Are Expected to Pay For Themselves But Boxing Would Probably Fall Down in Finances

By HEZE CLARK
(Written for United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 6—A determined effort to introduce boxing, as one of the intercollegiate sports in Indiana is now under way, but the idea is not meeting with general approval. At present it seems that the mit game will not prove popular with college athletes.

"Lefty" Gilbert, athletic director of Rose Poly at Terre Haute is taking a lead in introducing boxing at his school. Newspaper reports have it that the Engineers are enjoying the ring game and that challenges will be sent out to other colleges of the state. It is doubtful if the Rose Poly boxers will find any takers for more than one reason. It takes two to make a match and the boxing game will probably be confined to the Rose Poly gymnasium.

At present the colleges of Indiana have football, basketball track and field athletics, and tennis. Some have wrestling teams and swimming teams. Purdue and Indiana university both have strong wrestling teams and always prove important factors in settling the wrestling championship of the Big Ten conference. Wrestling, however, has not proved itself universally popular with the colleges of the state and it is doubtful if the matches would attract enough of a crowd to make them pay financially.

The money question is one that all schools—even the big ones—must consider and for that reason there is wrestling only at the larger schools. Baseball as a rule is a financial loss to the colleges. The game seldom attracts large enough crowds to meet the heavy expenses. Football and basketball give large financial returns. Football, however, costs far more money than any other branch of college athletics. Basketball costs less and at most colleges the total gate receipts for the season will reach a figure near that made from football. Track athletics have never been a big financial success.

In spite of this the colleges have continued in track work because of the wonderful benefits gained from it by the athletes.

Gladys Leslie at Mystic

After serving seventeen years in jail for murder, a crime of which he was innocent, John Sanford escapes. His heart is filled with revenge against Judge Lee, who sentenced him. He makes a midnight call upon the justice and is prevented from committing a crime by his daughter. She learns that the convict is her father and a pathetic scene follows. She does big things and has many adventures.

All this occurs in the Vitagraph feature "The Girl Woman," starring Gladys Leslie, which is being shown at the Mystic today. Harold Lloyd also appears in a comedy, "Never Touched Me." On Monday the final episode of the serial, "The Midnight Man," entitled "A Wild Finish," in which James J. Corbett is starred, will be shown. Other pictures on the program will be a Rainbow comedy, "Roof Garden Rough House," and Universal Current Events.

"Go West Young Man"

There is a small but important feature in connection with "Go West Young Man," the new Goldwyn Picture in which the Irish star comes to the Princess Theatre tonight. Careful observers will be sure to notice it, and the personal friends of Mr. Moore will see a great deal in it. The fans will revel in it.

Early in the play Dick Latham (Tom Moore bids farewell to his mother after a quarrel with his father.

In a scene of great tenderness he embraces his mother and explains why it is better that he should go away. Their devotion to each other has been made clear from the start. The moment of parting is a sad one.

Tom Moore and Mollie McConnell as Mrs. Latham, play this episode in a manner rarely seen in photo-plays. With perfect naturalness and absence of restraint they establish the relation of mother and son—not by extreme demonstrations of affection, but by an unmistakable spiritual bond. Never for one minute does it seem to the spectator a piece of routine acting. There is something curiously real about it. The explanation is not hard to find.

Moore is a sensitive young fellow and very sympathetic. All his life his devotion to his mother has been the admiration of all who know him, and the envy of Mrs. Moore's friends. They have been pals in the finest sense of the word. And so, when the opportunity came for the actor to express what he would feel if the mimic situation were real he did it. Which all goes to prove that convincing acting is not a matter of accident.

Don't Neglect The Little Ones

A snuffling, sneezing coughing child certainly is a reflection upon the parents. To permit a child to suffer from a cold is more than negligence; it is cruel. A cold that hangs on weakens the system and can easily turn into something serious. Mrs. J. S. Pilsen, 376 E. 158th St., Cleveland, Ohio, writes: "I can't speak too highly of Foley's Honey and Tar. When my little girl has a cold I give her Foley's Honey and Tar and that stops her coughing in a little while." Children like it. It contains no opiates. F. B. Johnson—(Adv.)

New Lining Gives One Detached Air

By MARGARET RHODE

The man who designed the detachable cuff

For this day and age didn't detach enough.

So some clever genius has just finished signing

The patent for dresses' detachable lining.

New York, Feb. 7.—You may wear a detached air this Spring but to be really smart you must wear a detached lining to your frock as well. Not smart in the chic sense of the word of course but downright clever for though one of these new detachable linings don't add much in a stylish way to your gown, as a first aid to sanitation, hygiene and time conservation they have no equal.

Just imagine the delight and relief when the lining of your perfectly good new frock has become a bit soiled to detach it deftly and airily from its moorings and nonchalantly toss it to the hand maiden who presides over your weekly wash board and industriously rubs her way through your entire wardrobe. Then when she has had her way with it and it returns to you a bit worn but pure you fasten it quickly in place inside your gown again and presto all is as good as new.

Surely everyone but the dry cleaners are due to hail these detachable linings with joy and rapture and attach themselves with great dispatch to a lining that will thus detach.

Made of heavy washable silk they can be obtained cut to any measure and can be adapted to any type of dress. Just for good measure they even come provided with an extra pair of sleeves. They certainly seem to be a mighty good thing to get next to or at least to get next to you.

Yet another detachable note promises to enter into our Spring fashionable scheme of things and that is the return of the Alexandria curl, as they call it in London, or the old Janice Meredith curl as we knew it here, in days of yore. It is that one corkscrewed over one shoulder from a loosely pompadoured coiffure. Ten to one it is as detachable as the aforementioned linings but to be firmly attached to the scalp does not bar it from the mode. It is a question whether the American girl will take very kindly to this form of hair dress for here we go in rather for the smart and original type of coiffure than the romantic and curls are relegated to the realms of the films and reels and looked upon as the exclusive prerogative of the movie queen.

Even if we don't fall for the coy Alexandria curl this Spring many queer things are due to go to our heads in the form of oilcloth hats in every hue and shape, hats woven of ribbons, raffia, heavy string and corn and even of the succulent soda water straw. These latter creations are bound to be quite tasty.

PUTS BLAME ON LOCAL ASSESSORS

essity whatever for the State Board to take any action. The suggestion you make about the township assessor is a good one. It would give publicity to assessments and men would at least know the amount of property their neighbors gives in for taxation. Very truly yours, J. P. GOODRICH, Governor.

MINERS HEAD RESIGNS

Washington, Feb. 7.—Frank J. Hayes resigned as international president of the United Mine Workers of America at the executive board meeting here yesterday. The board advanced John L. Following the repast the members were invited to the church auditorium where a very appropriate musical program was rendered. The remainder of the evening was spent in social conversation and getting better acquainted.

(By United Press.)

London, Feb. 7.—Admirers of Charles Dickens are to-day celebrating the 108th anniversary of the birth of the great Victorian novelist by pilgrimages to his birthplace, Gadshill, Landport, and the many places made famous by his writings. A number of houses in North and South London marked by memorial plates signifying that he lived there at some time or other were duly visited by Dickensians, and this week numerous Dickens readings and theatrical productions are scheduled to be given.
